Name of the Organization:

SUGUD – Separated Unjustly Guarded Under Dictates

Date of Establishment: 14 May 2025

Legal Form: Unincorporated Non-Profit Association

Head Office: Longford, Ireland

Founder and Director: Ahmed Homos

Purpose and Mission:

The organization SUGUD was founded with the purpose of:

1. Defending the rights of children who have been unjustly separated from their parents.
2. Supporting parents and siblings affected by systemic family separation.
3. Documenting institutional violations of family unity and parental rights.
4. Providing legal analysis and structured reports to national and international bodies.
5. Advocating for sustainable reform of child protection and family justice systems.
6. Creating a platform for peaceful resistance to parental exclusion and administrative misuse.

Operational Framework:

SUGUD operates as a non-profit, non-commercial organization, governed by an internal constitution signed and adopted on 14 May 2025.

It conducts quarterly reporting, public documentation, and professional engagement with lawyers, journalists, psychologists, and human rights organizations across Europe.

All activities are carried out with full respect for justice, transparency, and the dignity of the family.
